

This publication is for S corporations, partnerships, and limited liability companies (LLCs) that elect to file a group nonresident return. In this publication the term “business entity” refers to any one of these entities. The term “individual” refers to a shareholder, partner, or member who is a natural person and his/her spouse.

A Introduction

California allows certain nonresident individuals that receive distributive shares of income from business entities that derive income from California sources or are doing business in California to elect to file group nonresident returns, see Revenue and Taxation Code (R&TC) Section 18535. The business entity files the group nonresident return and pays the tax on behalf of the electing nonresident individuals.

References to the Form 540NR in this publication mean the Long Form 540NR, California Nonresident or Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return.

The business entity must use Form 540NR for the group nonresident return. The group nonresident return must be for a calendar year. If the business entity has a fiscal year end, report on the 2003 group nonresident return the individual's distributive share of California source income from the business entity's taxable year ending in 2003. The group nonresident return must include at least two electing nonresident individuals. Exception: Beginning with tax year 2003, a group nonresident return for shareholders of an S corporation may be filed with one nonresident individual shareholder. Special instructions for completing Form 540NR are explained in Section N, Instructions for Completing Group Nonresident Return.

B Why File a Group Nonresident Return

A group nonresident return is filed on behalf of the electing nonresident individuals for their convenience. When filing an individual return, a nonresident must report all income from all sources in addition to the California source income. On the group nonresident return, only the California source income from the business entity is reported. The income is taxed at the highest personal income tax marginal rate. The highest marginal rate is 9.3%.

C Who Can Be Included in the Group Nonresident Return

To be included in the group nonresident return:

- The shareholder/partner/member must be an individual. Partnerships, LLCs, C corporations, S corporations, Estates, or Trusts (other than grantor trusts described under IRC Section 675-677 and not recognized as separate taxable entity for income tax purposes) cannot be included in the group nonresident return;
- The individual must be a full-year nonresident of California; and
- The only California source income of the electing nonresident individual must be from the business entity. (For example, if a nonresident individual has California source income from a business entity and from a separate California rental property, this individual cannot elect to be included in the group nonresident return.)

Exception: A nonresident individual can be included on more than one group nonresident return. (For example, if a nonresident individual has California source income from two business entities and does not have California source income from any other source, then this individual must elect to be included in the group nonresident return for both business entities or file an individual California return. This individual cannot elect to be included in only one group return.)

Nonresidents or Part-year Residents:

The laws guiding California's taxation of nonresidents, former nonresidents, and part-year residents changed for taxable years beginning in 2002. The new laws set rules for calculating loss carryovers, deferred deductions, and deferred income. The new law also changed the tax computation method to recognize those items. However, the new law does not have an impact on how the tax is computed on a group nonresident return. Get FTB Pub. 1100, Taxation of Nonresidents and Individuals Who Change Residency, and/or FTB Pub. 1031, Guidelines for Determining Resident Status, for information to help you determine your residency status.

D Individual's Decision to be Included in the Group Nonresident Return

Each nonresident individual must decide whether to be included in the group nonresident return prior to its filing. Once the group nonresident return is filed, it cannot be amended to either include or exclude a nonresident individual.

Similarly, if an electing nonresident individual is included in the group nonresident return, the individual may not subsequently file an individual nonresident return, unless the individual discovers that he or she has income from other California sources and therefore would not qualify to participate in a group nonresident return.

The business entity is responsible for allowing each nonresident individual the annual option of being included in the group nonresident return. To assist individuals in making an informed decision about the implications of inclusion in the group nonresident return, the business entity must inform the nonresident individuals of the terms and conditions of filing a group return specified on form FTB 3864, Group Nonresident Return Election, included in this publication.

E Election to File a Group Nonresident Return

The business entity makes an annual election to file a group nonresident return on behalf of the electing nonresident individuals. Once made, the election is irrevocable for the taxable year. Complete form FTB 3864 (included in this publication) to make the election and attach it to the Form 540NR filed for the group.

F Requirement for the Electing Individual to File a California Income Tax Return

The requirement to file a California personal income tax return is determined on an individual basis. See “Do I Have to File?” in the Form 540NR booklet.

For 2003, a full-year nonresident is required to file a return if the individual has any California source income and has more than $12,346 gross income from all sources or more than $9,877 adjusted gross income from all sources, or owes $1 or more of tax. For prior years, get the Form 540NR booklet for the appropriate year.

G Reporting of Gains/Losses

Capital Gains/Losses. All limitations normally applied at the individual level apply on the nonresident group return. For instance, an individual's California source capital losses from a business entity may only be deducted to the extent of California source capital gains, plus $3,000. The allowable capital loss for each electing nonresident is totaled and entered on the return. The filing status of nonresident electing individuals is deemed to be single, limiting each to a $3,000 capital loss. The business entity must keep track of the allocable share of the California source capital gains and losses (including carryovers) for each electing nonresident individual.

Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 1231 net losses are allowed in full.

Passive Losses. The business entity must complete a single form FTB 3801, Passive Activity Loss Limitations, for the electing nonresident individuals included in the group return. Only California source passive losses are reported on form FTB 3801. Passive losses will be allowed only to the extent of passive income. When losses are not allowed, they are suspended at 100% for each electing nonresident individual. When suspended passive losses are released by current year passive income, the suspended prior year losses offset the current year passive income on the group return. Suspended prior year losses are also released upon disposition of the entire interest in the passive activity. The business entity must keep track of the allocable share of the suspended California source passive losses for each electing nonresident individual included in the group return.

H Individual Deductions Not Allowed on the Group Nonresident Return

Individual deductions are not allowed on the group nonresident return. Individual deductions include, but are not limited to the deduction for self-employment tax, the IRC Section 179 deduction, itemized deductions, and the standard deduction. However, there is an exception for the deduction for contributions to a deferred compensation plan. See Section I, Contributions to a Deferred Compensation Plan.

A Net Operating Loss (NOL) cannot be claimed on the group return.

I Contributions to a Deferred Compensation Plan

A deduction under IRC Section 401 through Section 424, as modified by California, is allowed on the group nonresident return. However, no deduction is allowed to any electing nonresident individual who has earned income from any other source.

The deduction is computed by multiplying the allowable federal deduction by the electing nonresident individual's California apportionment percentage.

J Credits

Only credits directly attributable to the business entity's activities can be claimed on the group nonresident return, such as the low-income housing credit and the manufacturers' investment credit.

Individual credits, such as the personal, blind, senior, or dependent exemption credits and the other state tax credit, are not allowed on the group nonresident return. To use individual credits, the individual should file a separate Form 540NR and should not be included on the group return.

K Estimated Tax Requirements

Generally, estimated tax payments are required if the group nonresident return's net tax after allowable tax credits is $200 or more. If the tax is underpaid, a penalty for the underpayment of estimated tax will be assessed based on the net tax of the group nonresident return. Get Form 540-ES, Estimated Tax for Individuals, and form FTB 5805, Underpayment of Estimated Tax by Individuals and Fiduciaries, for more information.

L How to Make Estimated Tax Payments on Form 540-ES

To make group nonresident return estimated payments:

1. Type or print the following information in the top margin of the Form 540-ES:
GROUP FILING PROGRAM MS A-2
ATTN IVS (732)

2. Enter the name and address as shown on page 6 of this publication.
3. Mail the estimate voucher with payment to the address shown on the Form 540-ES.

M Moving Estimated Payments Between the Group Nonresident Return and the Individual Nonresident Return

If the business entity made estimated tax payments on behalf of a nonresident individual throughout the taxable year and the nonresident individual opts out of the group filing before the group return is filed, then the individual's distributive share of estimated tax payments may be moved to the individual's account and claimed on the individual's return. To request the group's estimated tax payments be moved to the individual:

1. Complete Schedule 1067B, Group Nonresident Return Payment Transfer Request, included in this publication.
2. A general partner, member-manager, corporate officer, or attorney-in-fact of the business entity should sign the form.
3. Fax or mail the completed form to:
FAX number: (916) 845-9392
Mailing address: GROUP FILING PROGRAM MS A-2
ATTN INFORMATION VALIDATION SECTION (732)
FRANCHISE TAX BOARD
PO BOX 1468
SACRAMENTO CA 95812-1468

To ensure proper credit for the estimated tax payments, the individual should:

1. Write "Group Return Payment" along with the entity's FEIN to the left of the amount on line 49 of Form 540NR.

An electing nonresident individual may have made individual estimated tax payments and later elected to be included in the group nonresident return.

To request the individual's estimated tax payments be moved to the group:

1. Complete Schedule 1067B, Group Nonresident Return Payment Transfer Request, included in this publication.
2. A general partner, member-manager, corporate officer, or attorney-in-fact of the business entity should sign the form.
3. Fax or mail the completed form to the fax number or address shown above.

Note: If you need to move estimate payments to the group for some individuals and from the group for other individuals, do NOT combine the requests on one form. Use one form to move payments to the group and use a separate form to move payments to the individuals.

Once a request is received, it takes six to eight weeks to move the estimated tax payments and have the payments available to be claimed on the return.

N Instructions for Completing Group Nonresident Return

Complete the group nonresident return using personal income tax Form 540NR. Follow the instructions for the form with the following modifications:

1. Type or print the following information in the top margin of Form 540NR, Side 1:
GROUP FILING PROGRAM MS A-2
ATTN IVS (732)
2. If there is a mailing label on the front of the Form 540NR booklet, use the label. If you need to make any changes, cross out the incorrect information and clearly print the new information.
If there is no mailing label, follow the example on page 6 for entering the name and address on the group nonresident return.

3. Complete and attach Schedule 1067A, Nonresident Group Return Schedule, to Form 540NR.
4. Complete "Step 1," "Step 1a," and "Step 2" as shown in the example on page 6. In Step 2, be sure to write "Group Nonresident Return" to the right of the single filing status. Skip line 6 through line 19. Enter the cumulative totals for all individuals included in Schedule 1067A, Part I, as follows:
 - a. Enter the total distributive share of California source income from Schedule 1067A, Part I, column (c) on line 21;
 - b. Enter the total California tax from Schedule 1067A, Part I, column (e) on line 25c;
 - c. Enter the credit name, code number, and total amount of each type of credit on line 37 and line 38, if applicable;
 - d. Enter the total net tax from Schedule 1067A, Part I, column (g) on line 46; and
 - e. Complete the remaining lines of the Form 540NR as appropriate.
5. If an amount is due, make the check or money order payable to "Franchise Tax Board" for the full amount. Write the business entity's FEIN, SOS file number, and "2003 Group 540NR" on the check or money order.
6. Complete, sign, and attach form FTB 3864 to Form 540NR. The form FTB 3864 must be signed by an authorized person or attorney-in-fact. Signing form FTB 3864 means the business entity and all the electing individuals agree to the terms and conditions for filing a group nonresident return.
7. Mail the group nonresident return using one of the appropriate addresses shown in Step 11 on Form 540NR. Also attach a copy of the form to the business entity's return.

If you lease a private mailbox (PMB) from a private business rather than from the United States Postal Service, include the box number in the field labeled "PMB no." in the address area of form FTB 3864 and the Form 540NR.

0 Special Information for Partnerships and LLCs Subject to Apportionment

Cal. Code Regs., tit. 18 section 17951-4 applies to the income computation of the nonresident partners/members of a partnership/LLC. The regulation provides that 100% of the nonresident's distributive share of the partnership's business income plus any guaranteed payment, is subject to apportionment. Guaranteed payments are treated as part of a partner's distributive share of partnership business income. See R&TC Section 17854.

Investment Partnership – If the partnership qualifies as an investment partnership under R&TC Section 17955(c), generally the dividends, interest, gains, and losses from that partnership will be sourced in the partner's/member's state of residence.

If the partnership does not qualify as an investment partnership under R&TC Section 17955(c) or if the partnership does qualify as an investment partnership but the partner/member is disqualified under R&TC Section 17955(b), pertaining to investment activities interrelated with trade or business within this state, then the normal apportionment and allocation rules apply in determining the character of the income as business or nonbusiness. Business income should be apportioned using the partnership factors. Nonbusiness income from intangibles should generally be allocated to each partner's/member's state of residence. For more information, see instructions for Form 565, Partnership Return of Income, or Form 568, Limited Liability Company Return of Income.

P Withholding Requirements of Partnership/LLC

Withholding is required if:

- California source income is allocable under IRC Section 704 to a foreign nonresident partner/member; or
- California source income distributed to a domestic (nonforeign) nonresident partner/member exceeds $1,500 in the calendar year.

The withholding rates are 8.84% for foreign corporate partners/members, 9.3% for foreign nonresident individual partners/members, and 7% for all domestic nonresident partners/members. Withholding is not required if the partner/member has received authorization waiving the withholding from the Franchise Tax Board. However, there is no provision in the tax law to allow a waiver of withholding for a foreign nonresident partner/member.

For additional information concerning California withholding requirements, please get FTB Pub. 1016, Nonresident Withholding Real Estate Guidelines; FTB Pub. 1017, Nonresident Withholding Partnership Guidelines; FTB Pub. 1023, Nonresident Withholding Independent Contractor Rent and Royalty Guidelines; or call the Withholding Services and Compliance Section's automated toll-free telephone service at (888) 792-4900.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF FILING A GROUP NONRESIDENT RETURN

The above business entity and its electing nonresident individuals included in the filing of the group nonresident return (Form 540NR) agree to the following terms and conditions:

- The election to file a group nonresident return on behalf of the electing nonresident individuals must be made annually by the business entity by completing this form. This form must be signed by an authorized general partner, member-manager, corporate officer, or an attorney-in-fact of the business entity.
- The group nonresident return must be a calendar year return. If the business entity has a fiscal year end, report on the 2003 group nonresident return the individual's distributive share of California source income from the business entity's taxable year ending in 2003.
- Form 540NR, California Nonresident or Part-Year Resident Income Tax Return, must be used for the group nonresident return. Form 540NR will be prepared as outlined in FTB Pub. 1067, Guidelines for Filing a Group Form 540NR.
- The business entity will provide to each nonresident individual the election to be included in the group nonresident return. The nonresident individual will make the election on an annual basis. The election to participate for a given year may be made only by an individual qualified to be included in a group nonresident return and is irrevocable upon the filing of the group nonresident return for that year.
- The business entity shall maintain a file of powers of attorney executed by each electing nonresident individual. The powers of attorney shall authorize the business entity to include the electing nonresident individual in the group nonresident return filed. Do not attach the powers of attorney to the return.
- There must be at least two electing nonresident individuals to file a nonresident group return. Exception: Beginning with tax year 2002, a group nonresident return for shareholders of an S corporation may be filed with one nonresident individual shareholder.
- To be included in the group nonresident return, the electing shareholder/partner/member must be an individual and a full-year nonresident of California. Estates, trusts (other than grantor trusts described under IRC Section 673-677 and not recognized as separate taxable entity for income tax purpose), partnerships, LLCs, C corporations, or S corporations cannot be included in the group nonresident return.
- To be included in the group nonresident return, the income from the business entity must be the only California source income of the individual, unless the other California source income is reported by the individual in another qualified group nonresident return filed under this provision.

- i. No deductions are allowed except those necessary to determine each individual's distributive share of income from the business entity. However, a deduction is allowed for contributions to qualified deferred compensation plans attributable to earned income of a partner/member as provided in Subchapter D of Chapter 1 of Subtitle A of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC), as modified by the Revenue and Taxation Code (R&TC) beginning with Section 17501. No deduction to a qualified deferred compensation plan is allowed if the individual has earned income from any other source. See FTB Pub. 1067.
- j. No credits are allowed except those directly attributable to the business entity's activity. In the event allowable credits exceed the amount of tax for a given year and credits are available for carryover, the business entity will properly account for such credit with respect to each individual included in the group nonresident return.
- k. Each individual included in the group nonresident return will be assessed tax on California source income at the highest individual marginal rate.
- l. The business entity shall make estimated tax payments for the group pursuant to R&TC Section 19136. Payments for the group will be made under the FEIN of the business entity.
- m. The business entity shall receive any notices of proposed tax to be assessed and any assessments of tax with respect to the group nonresident return. Additionally, the business entity, or its designated representative, shall represent the individuals in protest, claims for refund, appeal procedures, or in court proceedings related to tax matters associated with the group nonresident filing. The business entity shall pay any tax assessments and any attributable interest and penalties for the group nonresident return. The penalties will be computed as if all the electing individuals included in the return did not participate in any other group nonresident return for that same tax year. The business entity's agreement to pay tax, interest, and penalties does not absolve the individuals of their respective obligations to pay their California taxes, interest, and penalties, if such obligations are not satisfied by the business entity.
- n. If an electing nonresident individual has a tax deficiency attributable to California source income that was distributable by the business entity to the individual for any tax year, the business entity agrees that it shall act as a withholding agent. The business entity agrees to accept (without contesting jurisdiction) Orders to Withhold against funds to be distributed to such individuals. The funds need not be paid over to the Franchise Tax Board until they are clearly identified as being currently distributable.
- o. The business entity shall file Form 100S, California S Corporation Franchise or Income Tax Return/Form 565, California Partnership Return of Income/Form 568, Limited Liability Company Return of Income, as appropriate. A business entity doing business within and outside of California must determine the portion of the total net income that has its source in California using the allocation and apportionment provisions in the Uniform Division of Income for Tax Purposes Act (UDITPA). Refer to R&TC Sections 25120 through 25141 and applicable regulations.

The terms and conditions set forth above are agreed to on behalf of the above-named business entity and its electing nonresident individuals. I have been authorized by the above-named business entity and its electing individuals to accept the terms and conditions set forth above.
